

Jill Irving Canadian Youth Equestrian Mentorship Program 2020

When

The program is scheduled to take place February 26, 2020 to March 2, 2020.

Where

Wellington, Florida

Program Objective

The Canadian Youth Equestrian Mentorship Program is designed to inspire Canadian equestrians between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one from the dressage and hunter/jumper disciplines by bringing them to the largest, competitive equestrian venue in North America, and providing opportunities for them to engage with leading, Canadian riders. The exposure that program participants will get to the daily routines, competition preparation, training, and horse management of top, international equestrians will be unique and impactful in helping to foster future equestrians in Canada.

Program Outline

Twelve participants (6 Dressage and 6 Hunter/Jumper) will be selected via lottery to travel to Wellington, Florida. Wellington is the epicenter of both international dressage and hunter/jumper competition during the winter months and is the seasonal home to some of the world's top equestrians. Participants will be separated into two groups based on discipline, each group will focus on specific discipline related mentorship with top competitors and show grooms, educational discussions, barn tours, and networking activities. This program does not include any riding opportunity.

Accommodation and ground transportation in Wellington

While in Wellington, FL, accommodations will be provided. Daily supervision and all ground transportation will be provided by one chaperone per group. Chaperones will be onsite specifically to provide leadership and supervision for the group and will accompany each group to activities and events throughout their stay.

Expenses

Each participant is responsible for his/her own airfare, meals and spending money. Ground transportation and accommodation in Wellington have been generously donated by Jill Irving. There are no costs associated with any of the activities, or attendance at any of the events planned for participants, outside of the food and spending money referenced above.

Eligibility Requirements

Participants must be between the ages of 16 and 21 (no exceptions will be made);

- Participants must be a member in good standing of Equestrian Canada and of their Provincial Equestrian Association;
- Participants must have competition experience in the discipline (dressage or hunter/jumper) that they wish to participate in; competition may have been at any level;
- Participants must provide proof of travel insurance;
- Participants must have a valid passport for travel into the United States.

Arrival and Departure Schedules

Participants will need to make their own travel arrangements. Palm Beach International Airport is the closest airport to Wellington, FL. Fort Lauderdale International Airport is the next closest airport and is approximately 1 hour from Wellington, FL. Specific arrival and departure dates and times will be available at a later date.
